

A Jackson Biography for Young Readers (and Elders)

*John Q. Barrett

Copyright © 2008 by John Q. Barrett.
All rights reserved.

Gail Jarrow, a very talented researcher and writer, has published ROBERT H. JACKSON: NEW DEAL LAWYER, SUPREME COURT JUSTICE, NUREMBERG PROSECUTOR (Calkins Creek Books, 2008). This book, aimed at readers ages ten and higher, includes eleven chapters, endnotes that identify research sources, a timeline, a bibliography, and a guide to additional resources. The book tells Robert Jackson's self-made, exciting, accomplished and inspirational life story and contains almost one hundred photographs, including some of Jackson that have never been published previously.

I expect that Gail Jarrow's book will become a mainstay in school libraries and popular in households throughout the United States. If you are involved with schools, libraries, history programs or young readers, please spread the word.

For the publisher's information page on the book, click here.

To order the book on Amazon.Com, click here.

* Professor of Law, St. John's University School of Law, New York City, and Elizabeth S. Lenna Fellow, Robert H. Jackson Center, Jamestown, New York (www.roberthjackson.org). I posted an earlier version of this text to my Jackson email list on April 22, 2008.

For a selected archive of Jackson List postings, see my homepage at www.law.stjohns.edu. To subscribe to the Jackson List, which does not display recipient identities or distribute their email addresses, send a note to barrettj@stjohns.edu.